

4 O'CLOCK P. M.
CITY EDITION

The Ogden Standard.

FEARLESS, INDEPENDENT, PROGRESSIVE NEWSPAPER.

OGDEN CITY, UTAH, WEDNESDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 12, 1913.

THE WEATHER

Tonight and Thursday generally cloudy; local rains; cooler in south portion to night.

RAGING SEAS ON LAKE HURON

Revenue Cutter and Tugs Unable to Get Near Overturned Steamer.

GOOD-BYE MESSAGE

Captain of Missing Lightship Writes Last Words on Piece of Wood.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 12.—As today progressed prospects for a speedy resumption of street car traffic were bright and it was expected that the railroad also would establish communication with the outside world on a basis approaching much nearer to schedule time than yesterday. Bright, sunshiny weather prevailed.

In the city this morning the Detroit avenue line, one of the great traffic arteries of the city, and a few cross-town lines were still out of commission. Hundreds of laborers were at work clearing the tracks, however, and the reopening was only a matter of hours.

Vessels were able to clear Cleveland port. Life savers and tug owners were on the outlook for traces of wrecks on Lake Erie.

While the railroad street car lines and interurban systems are approaching ordinary conditions, the telegraph and telephone companies will not be able to restore their lines completely for weeks and perhaps even months.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 12.—With the city under from two to six feet of snow, the problem of distributing the available food and coal supplies in the city caused anxiety today. Of other food except green stuff, a fairly large supply is on hand. The big milk companies yesterday made sales only to those who wanted it for babies, and the greater part of the demand was thus supplied.

Factories began shutting down yesterday because of the shortage of coal. Retail dealers say a famine of coal for dwelling houses and apartment houses depends on deliveries which just now are impossible.

Triple prices were paid to the farmers for wheat, corn and soybeans. Ten plants of the American Steel and Wire company, employing about 4000 men were shut down last evening because of the lack of coal and 500 men employed at the Gilders Varnish company were sent home for the same reason.

Heavy Losses Reported. Goderich, Ont., Nov. 12.—Reports from points along the Canadian shore of Lake Huron point to a heavy loss of life and shipping in the recent storm. Seven bodies from the schooner Charles S. Price have been washed ashore below Grand Bend.

Wreckage found here indicates that the James Carruthers, the largest Canadian freighter on the lakes, has been lost.

An oak picked up this morning just outside this harbor was marked "James Carruthers." Search along the coast for a mile revealed a rudder from one of the Carruthers' life boats, part of an oak finished cabin, pieces of oak chairs, part of a pilot house and other portions of the upper works of a large steamer. The Carruthers was owned by the St. Lawrence and Chicago Navigation company.

The Charles S. Price was a steel schooner of 4901 tons, built at Lorain, Ohio, and owned by the Mahoning Steamship company. The bodies of her crew were washed ashore last night at Grand Bend which is on the eastern shore of the lake.

Tug Martin Arrives. Menominee, Mich., Nov. 12.—The tug Martin, which had the Plymouth in tow, arrived in a sinking condition late last night. It was at first reported that the Martin had been lost with its crew of nine men. Captain Louis Stetunsky of the Martin reported that the Plymouth anchored near Gull Island Saturday morning while the tug sought shelter a few miles below. Returning later, he was unable to find any trace of the barge and he thought it was probable the craft broke from its moorings and sank.

The identity of four of the seven men in Plymouth is not known here. The others are Christopher Kenan, a deputy United States marshal, and James Sabota, both of this city, and Axel Larson of Marinette, Wis.

STORM BULLETINS

Menominee, Mich., Nov. 12.—It was reported here today that the barge Plymouth went down in last Sunday's storm near Gull Island, Lake Michigan, just off the entrance of Green Bay. She had seven men on board.

Three Steamers Aground. Port Williams, Ont., Aug. 12.—Fears today were expressed for the steamer Leafair, aground on Angus island, beyond Thunder Cape. The tug J. T. Horne made two searching trips but was unable to find any trace of the Leafair. Marine men believe that she slid off the rocks and sank at once. She was loaded with steel rails and carried a crew of fifteen men.

The steamer Nottingham is aground on Parsian island, twenty miles from Whitefish Bay. Her bottom is all gone.

The Canadian Pacific railroad steamer Alberta, which has lain for four days at anchor at Whitefish Bay, arrived this morning, as did the Huronic which was on a sand bar at Whitefish Bay two days.

Diver to Identify Vessel. Port Huron, Mich., Nov. 12.—The tug Sport, with a diver aboard, left this forenoon to attempt to identify the overturned vessel. If the diver can work in the sea, which is still rolling high, it is expected definite information will soon be obtained. The revenue cutter Morrill and members of the life saving crew are still standing by the wreck.

Steamers Unable to Make Port. Needah, Wis., Nov. 12.—The steamers, Thistle and Carter, loaded with grain and coal, have been unable to reach Calumet harbor on the east shore of Lake Winnebago for several days, owing to the terrific gale.

Port Huron, Mich., Nov. 12.—As if to warn other vessels to keep their distance, Lake Huron today lashed itself into a sea so rough it is probable the country must wait at least another day before the identity of the overturned steamer a few miles northeast of here will be definitely known.

The tug Sport, with a diver aboard, visited the wreck this forenoon, but the waves were rolling ten and twelve feet high and it was impossible for the diver to get close to the derelict. The revenue cutter Morrill was also compelled to stand helplessly by. The diver will be sent out again tomorrow.

PATTERSON HAS CHANGED MIND

Governor of Tennessee Eschouses Cause of the Anti-Saloon League.

CASTS ASIDE PRIDE

Liquor's Forked Lightning Strikes First Born and Father Feels Its Wrath.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 12.—With nine governors and former governors already here or expected to arrive later today, "Governor's day" of the National convention of the Anti-Saloon league furnished a notable gathering of public men.

At a business session of the Anti-Saloon league national convention this afternoon, it was expected that Rev. Purley A. Baker of Columbus, Ohio, would be re-elected general superintendent of the league. Joshua Levering of Baltimore, Md., long prominent in the councils of the Prohibition party, was one of the principal speakers at the morning session. Mr. Levering predicted that the ban of prohibition would be placed against the manufacture and sale of alcoholic liquors before 1920.

"The country is aroused," said Mr. Levering, "and we can see the dawn of victory. Nothing can stem its progress."

Columbus, O., Nov. 12.—Former Governor Malcolm R. Patterson of Tennessee, said in part:

"The Anti-Saloon league and I have not always been friends. The paths we traveled were wide apart. But they have met, and we now find ourselves in the same road, actuated by the same desire to destroy the traffic in liquor."

"I am aware that to have suddenly changed the views of mature manhood which I once asserted and proclaimed from one end of Tennessee to the other has excited surprise and provoked comment. I am neither ashamed nor abashed to stand before this audience and acknowledge the wrong."

Commenting on one of his messages to the Tennessee legislature in which he opposed further legislation to regulate the liquor traffic, Mr. Patterson reiterated that at that time those were his honest convictions based on a misjudged judgment. He continued:

"I have seen the trail of liquor in the criminal courts. I know and have been a participant in its paralyzing and corrupting influence in the social and public life of our national capital."

"First Born Struck Down." "I have seen it drag down many of the associates of my boyhood. I have seen its forked lightning strike my first born—the child of my young manhood. At last I have felt its fowl and stealthy blow as it turned on me its deadly and shaming wrath—on me, who had pleaded before the people for its very existence."

"When logic failed and reason gave no answer, I cast aside all pride of opinion, all thought of what the world might think or say and went to the throne of almighty God. There, on strength, and they came. I arose a changed man."

"I favor prohibition in any form that will either reduce or destroy the liquor traffic. I favor it personally, town-wide, state-wide, nationwide and world-wide."

TUXPAM FEARS REBEL ATTACK

Battleship Louisiana Ready to Protect American Citizens If Occasion Calls.

Mexico City, Nov. 12.—The federal garrison at Tuxpam, Vera Cruz, has asked the war department for reinforcements to defend the city against the attack by rebels under Candido Aguilar. The garrison numbers 150 men. The war department replied that the reinforcements were unavailable. Rear Admiral Bouch on the battleship Louisiana at Tuxpam reported to the navy department today there was no immediate need of protection to American people in that vicinity. He has convinced Consul Payne that the Louisiana will act as asylum for Americans and other foreigners. For the present the Louisiana will remain at Tuxpam.

Bryan Sends Warning. Washington, D. C., Nov. 12.—Late today Secretary Bryan warned both the Huerta government and the Constitutionalists not to molest extensive English and American oil properties at Tuxpam, which it was reported that one or both factions were threatening to burn.

SILVER SERVICE FOR MISS JESSIE WILSON

Washington, D. C., Nov. 12.—A silver service will be the wedding gift from senators to Miss Jessie Wilson, daughter of Senator Martin, who is receiving voluntary subscriptions from his colleagues.

PATTERSON HAS CHANGED MIND

Governor of Tennessee Eschouses Cause of the Anti-Saloon League.

CASTS ASIDE PRIDE

Liquor's Forked Lightning Strikes First Born and Father Feels Its Wrath.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 12.—With nine governors and former governors already here or expected to arrive later today, "Governor's day" of the National convention of the Anti-Saloon league furnished a notable gathering of public men.

At a business session of the Anti-Saloon league national convention this afternoon, it was expected that Rev. Purley A. Baker of Columbus, Ohio, would be re-elected general superintendent of the league. Joshua Levering of Baltimore, Md., long prominent in the councils of the Prohibition party, was one of the principal speakers at the morning session. Mr. Levering predicted that the ban of prohibition would be placed against the manufacture and sale of alcoholic liquors before 1920.

"The country is aroused," said Mr. Levering, "and we can see the dawn of victory. Nothing can stem its progress."

Columbus, O., Nov. 12.—Former Governor Malcolm R. Patterson of Tennessee, said in part:

"The Anti-Saloon league and I have not always been friends. The paths we traveled were wide apart. But they have met, and we now find ourselves in the same road, actuated by the same desire to destroy the traffic in liquor."

"I am aware that to have suddenly changed the views of mature manhood which I once asserted and proclaimed from one end of Tennessee to the other has excited surprise and provoked comment. I am neither ashamed nor abashed to stand before this audience and acknowledge the wrong."

Commenting on one of his messages to the Tennessee legislature in which he opposed further legislation to regulate the liquor traffic, Mr. Patterson reiterated that at that time those were his honest convictions based on a misjudged judgment. He continued:

"I have seen the trail of liquor in the criminal courts. I know and have been a participant in its paralyzing and corrupting influence in the social and public life of our national capital."

"First Born Struck Down." "I have seen it drag down many of the associates of my boyhood. I have seen its forked lightning strike my first born—the child of my young manhood. At last I have felt its fowl and stealthy blow as it turned on me its deadly and shaming wrath—on me, who had pleaded before the people for its very existence."

"When logic failed and reason gave no answer, I cast aside all pride of opinion, all thought of what the world might think or say and went to the throne of almighty God. There, on strength, and they came. I arose a changed man."

"I favor prohibition in any form that will either reduce or destroy the liquor traffic. I favor it personally, town-wide, state-wide, nationwide and world-wide."

SUPREME COURT MUST DECIDE

Contest For Possession of Pink Pearl For Which Detectives Long Sought.

New York, Nov. 12.—Justice Thomas D. Donnell and a jury of the supreme court have been called on to decide a contest for the possession of a pink pearl valued at $10,000. The gem is now the center of a necklace worn by Mrs. Jules Vatable, who was Elizabeth Stokes and who says she bought it in good faith from a Maiden Lane jeweler, Ludwig Nissen, an importer, claims the pearl is one which was stolen from him in 1907 and on the trail of which detectives have been ever since.

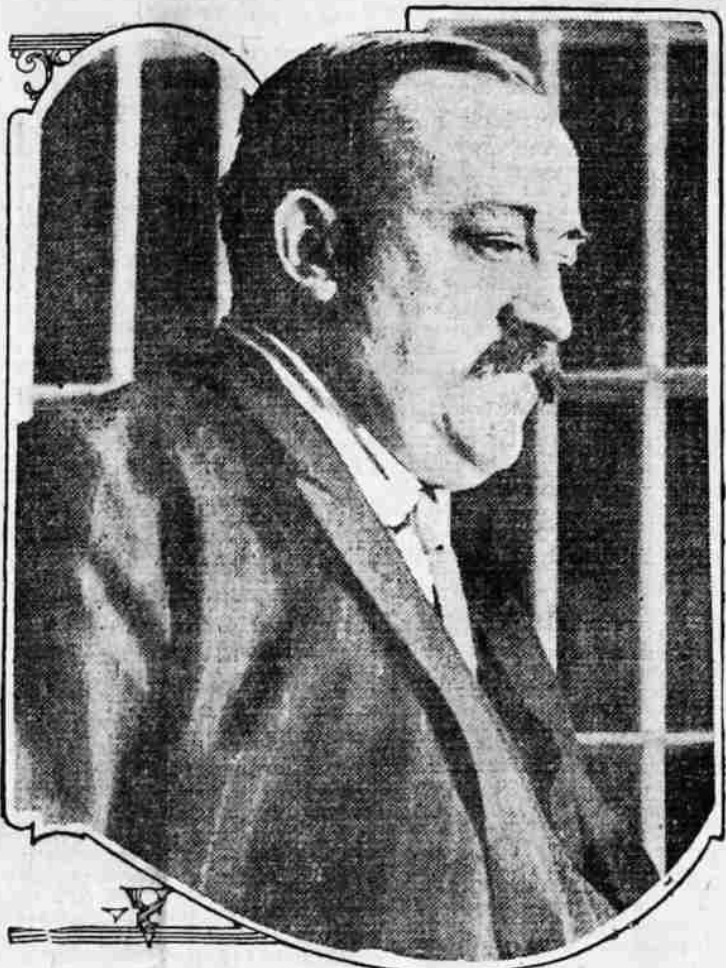

The importer says he submitted the pearl to a prospective purchaser and that while it was being returned it fell into the possession of J. Edgar Boeck, who fled to San Francisco with jewels valued at many thousands of dollars, belonging to other New York firms. Boeck had just completed a seven-year term in Sing Sing prison for the thefts. In his confession he told of giving the pink pearl to a woman, who disposed of it to a San Francisco dealer. Detectives say they traced it to the Maiden Lane house from which Mrs. Vatable bought it.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC STOCK BEING SOLD

Washington, Nov. 12.—The day in congress: Senate—Not in session; meets Thursday. Democrats met in conference and discussed currency bill.

House—Met at noon and adjourned at 12:35 p. m., until noon Thursday.

"BEWARE THE CURSE OF EASY MONEY!" CRIES LYMAN, "THE REAL WALLINGFORD"

Dr. John Grant Lyman in Los Angeles jail.

"Beware the curse of easy money!" This is the warning sounded by Dr. John Grant Lyman, often called "The Real Wallingford," who is being tried before a federal court in Los Angeles on a charge of having used the U. S. mails to defraud. Lyman says he is innocent of the charge made against him, but that his downfall is due to the fact that he made millions easily on Wall Street.

CONFERENCE ON NEWLANDS LOSES MEXICAN BORDER DESPERATE RACE

Special Envoy William Bayard Hale Opens Talk With Revolutionists.

MEETING AT NOGALES

General Venustiano Carranza and Entire Mexican Constitutional Cabinet Present.

Nogales, Sonora, Mexico, Nov. 12.—William Bayard Hale, President Wilson's personal representative, went into conference here just before noon today with General Venustiano Carranza and the entire Mexican Constitutional cabinet.

The conference was held in the border customs house in which Carranza established his capital on coming here from Hermosillo.

Those who met the American representative with General Carranza were General Felipe Angeles, minister of war; Francisco Escudero, minister of foreign relations and the treasury; Ygnacio Bonillas, minister of fomento and communications; and Rafael Zubaran of the department of the interior.

Neither Mr. Hale nor General Carranza would give any intimation as to the topics that might come up for discussion.

The conference extended far into the afternoon.

NOTORIOUS FORGER CAUGHT BY CITIZEN

St. Louis, Nov. 12.—Aquila H. Dulaney, under indictment here for forgery, and said by the police to be a notorious forger, was arrested by a private citizen here today after a chase. When he was taken, his fourth wife, a bride of three weeks, was waiting for him at a hotel. Dulaney said after his third wife had divorced him in 1903, he began his career of forgery.

In 1911 he served several months in the St. Louis workhouse. Last month while here at a fashionable hotel he met and married Mrs. Bertha May Rose, a widow of Oakland, Cal. Mrs. Dulaney told the police her husband had represented to her that he had a government position and soon was to go to Argentina on a diplomatic mission.

He had served several months in the St. Louis workhouse. Last month while here at a fashionable hotel he met and married Mrs. Bertha May Rose, a widow of Oakland, Cal. Mrs. Dulaney told the police her husband had represented to her that he had a government position and soon was to go to Argentina on a diplomatic mission.

JAPANESE WILL SEND WARSHIP

Tokyo, Nov. 12.—The Japanese government decided today to send the armored cruiser Isumo to Mexican waters for the protection of Japanese subjects in Mexico.

Officials of the Japanese foreign office declare that the dispatch of the Isumo to Mexico was merely a precautionary measure in case the situation there becomes critical. The following statement was made public: "The Japanese government is sincerely desirous that the situation in Mexico should improve and that natives and foreigners in the country should be safe, but judging from reports, the lives and property of Japanese residents there, cannot be said to be secure."

"Already some of the powers have dispatched warships to Mexican waters and one nation is negotiating with another for the purpose of entrusting its nationals to its care. The Japanese government first sound the alarm by dispatching the Isumo to Mexico for the possibility of its citizens being placed in a position of danger and therefore has decided to dispatch the Isumo."

The impression prevails that the Japanese government first sound the alarm by dispatching the Isumo to Mexico for the possibility of its citizens being placed in a position of danger and therefore has decided to dispatch the Isumo."

The Isumo is being prepared for her voyage at the naval basis of Yokosuka.

ITALIAN BARK WITH ELEVEN MEN SINKS

Lisbon, Nov. 11.—Eleven of the crew of the Italian bark Elvo were drowned when that vessel sank today in deep water after striking a rock at the mouth of the river Mira, while maneuvering to avoid a collision with another ship. Only three members of the crew were rescued, one of these being John Clasel, a Californian.

The Elvo was laden with lumber and was on a voyage to Genoa from Gulfport, Miss., whence she sailed on September 10. She was a vessel of 1100 tons, built in 1882.

COWDRAY STUNG BY CRITICISM

English Lord Issues Statement of His Financial Dealings With Mexico.

London, Nov. 12.—Stung by criticism of his alleged financial support of Provisional President Huerta, Lord Cowdray today issued a statement above his own signature setting forth the extent of his financial connection with the Mexican government. He said:

"Statements peculiarly inaccurate, and of a mischievous character, having lately appeared in certain sections of the press, in reference to my financial connection with the present provisional government of Mexico, I think the public is entitled to learn from me what are the facts."

"In common with most of the banks and leading houses in Mexico, my firm and allied companies subscribed for a small proportion—less than 3 per cent—of the government loan made through the National Bank of Mexico."

"Apart from this neither I, my firm, nor our allied companies have in any way directly or indirectly assisted in a financial manner the present provisional government. Nor, let me in justice add, have we been asked so to do."

MAN THROWN FROM TRAIN IMPROVING

Joliet, Ill., Nov. 12.—H. A. Kellogg, of Los Angeles, Cal., who was found seriously injured beside the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railroad tracks near here Sunday morning, was in a favorable condition today at St. Joseph's hospital. Kellogg, who said he had two brothers in Los Angeles, told a story of having been robbed and thrown from an east-bound train in the early hours of Sunday.

He was found by a farmer who cared for him until a railroad ambulance could be called. The farmer understood the man to give the name of Moley. It was the farmer the injured man told he had two brothers in Los Angeles.

From his first disconnected story, it was understood Kellogg was a University of California student. He is 26 years old, was well dressed but had no money or valuables. His injuries were such as might have been caused by being thrown from a fast train.

CHAFIN OPPOSES LEAGUE PROPOSAL

Chicago, Nov. 12.—Eugene W. Chafin, presidential candidate of the Prohibition party in 1908 and 1912, criticized the proposed national constitutional prohibition amendment movement fostered by the Anti-Saloon league convention at Columbus, Ohio, this week, in an address last night to Cook county prohibitionists.

"The constitution amendment would not be enforced unless we elected every officer from president down," he said. "The prohibition party proposes to elect officials who will prevent immediate manufacture of liquor. I am not willing to wait until two-thirds of congress propose a constitutional amendment and then three-fourths of the states ratify it."

HANS SCHMIDT TRIAL OPENS NOVEMBER 19

New York, Nov. 12.—The trial of Hans Schmidt, former priest, for the murder of Anna Ammiller, parts of whose dismembered body were found in the Hudson river, was set today for November 19.

PARTY CAUCUS ON CURRENCY

Democrats Endeavor to Preserve Fundamentals of the Administration Bill.

HITCHCOCK ABSENT

Eight Regional Banks Recommended—House Provision on Stock Ownership to Stand.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 12.—Senate Democrats in a party caucus today took up the currency situation with the plan of bringing the administration bill out of the complex situation which has grown up about it in the banking committee and putting the measure on the way to passage in a form acceptable to President Wilson.

Before the committee conferred again in an effort to agree on a report preserving the fundamentals of the house bill, for which the president contends, and embodying those recommendations agreed on for its perfection.

Senators O'Gorman and Reed went into the committee meeting, but Senator Hitchcock did not attend. A compromise was effected as between the twelve regional banks of the house bill and the four voted in by a majority of the senate committee. The Democrats agreed to recommend eight.

Bank ownership of stock in the regional banks was taken up, but the administration senators refused to yield and it was practically agreed that the house provision on that point should stand. A similar controversy arose over control of the banks, but the administration supporters insisted that the house provision be adopted, providing for six directors elected by the banks and three appointed by the government.

FOURTEEN MEN ARE MASSACRED

Little Garrison at Musquis Riddled With Bullets By Band of Rebels.

Mexico City, Mexico, Nov. 12.—A band of rebels on Saturday massacred five federal officers and nine soldiers at Musquis in the state of Coahuila. The fourteen men fought until their last cartridge was fired. Then they were overpowered and killed.

The little detachment of federalists under the command of Major Gumbardo, had been left to garrison the town, which has 6000 inhabitants. When the rebels attacked them, the federal soldiers, although they had no hope of victory, ignored the offer of the rebel commander to spare their lives and decided to fight to the end. They kept up the struggle for twenty-four hours.

Federal reinforcements arrived today from the city of Porfirio Diaz and drove off the rebels. The bodies of the gallant troop of defenders were found riddled with bullets.

FARRELL GIVES OUT DECISIONS

National Board of Baseball Arbitration Announces Work of Night Session.

Columbus, Nov. 12.—John H. Farrell, secretary and treasurer of the National Baseball association, today announced decisions of the national board of arbitration, which were reached after a session of the board which extended into the early hours of the morning. The decisions, in part, follows:

Claim of J. M. Myers, against Calzary, disallowed.

Claim of Jack Mertens against Quincy, disallowed.

Claim of City of Saskatoon, Canada, against Moose Jaw, $80 allowed.

Claim of J. A. Priest against Quincy, allowed.

Claim of Leonard Alby, against Milwaukee, disallowed.

Claim of Player Walters against Player Foster, allowed.

Claim of J. W. Agnew against Portland, Ore., $634 disallowed.

Claim of Player Ferguson against Player Moulton, allowed.

Claim of Pitcher Scott, Chicago, against Player George Farthing, allowed.